

TCAC Prepares for the 6th Annual ArtWalk

ArtWalk 2008 logo by Josifa Casey

Come stroll with us in downtown Red Bluff on November 7 and 8 for the Tehama County Arts Council's 6th annual ArtWalk!

More than 100 artists of various mediums are participating in the ArtWalk set for Friday, November 7th from 5:00 PM – 9:00 PM (artists' receptions and displays) and Saturday, November 8th from 10:00 AM – 3:00 PM (art viewing only).

The event is FREE and families are encouraged to attend. The ArtWalk is held in conjunction with the Downtown Red Bluff Business Association's HOLIDAY OPEN HOUSE. Participating businesses and venues will exhibit the creations of local artists and will host receptions in their honor so that everyone can meet and talk with the featured artists. The TCAC goals are:

- To provide visibility for artists and their works.
- For businesses to showcase holiday specials.
- For the community to gain knowledge of Red Bluff businesses.
- For the community to meet the artists and appreciate the quality of local art.
- To broaden our community's artistic environment.

Look for the purple venue flags that will identify the 20 available venues. For information regarding ArtWalk, 2008 please contact Judi (527-1327) or go to the TCAC website www.tehamaarts.org.

See you on November 7th!

Thank you to the Downtown Red Bluff Business Association and All participating artists.

From the Chair....

The TCAC has had quite a busy and successful Spring, having sponsored the Missoula Children's Theatre in April and having hosted youth artists from Red Bluff High School at the State Theatre's Artist in Residence program from May through July. We've also provided several grants to local arts endeavors: The Manton School Bluegrass Music program, Western Open Fiddlers Accompanist Division prizes, and the production of the Sign Theatre at the State Theatre, among others. We are now all working hard to bring you the 8th annual Tehama County Children's Autumn Art Contest on October 11 at the fairgrounds, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., and the 6th annual ArtWalk 2008, on November 7th and 8th in downtown Red Bluff.

Our all volunteer board of director's has become very small indeed, as some of our long-serving members have resigned to pursue other endeavors, or their terms were up. We bid a fond farewell to Barbara Luzzadder, Maureen Greer, Maureen Lasley, and Basia Trout. All of these ladies have worked so hard for the arts in Tehama County over the years, and they will be missed. Thank you for your service and your willingness to continue to volunteer.

We wish to welcome some new board members who joined us this spring/summer: Cleo Gambetta and Christy Gadbois-Vail. Cleo and Christy are talented artists and their ideas and enthusiasm are such welcome additions to the board.

We also welcome and are excited to announce additional new board members who were elected at our August meeting: Chrisie Hamilton Clapp, Gene and Marjorie Curl, Caroline Elfring, Patti Haskins, and Jan Peterson, all talented folks and passionate about the arts. That still leaves room on the Board of Directors for new blood! We still have two director slots open. We invite our general membership to look into becoming a board member. We meet once a month, on the third Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. Maybe you've been a TCAC member for a while and wish to be more involved in the community arts programs, or maybe you have ideas about how we can support, improve or expand the arts in Tehama County. In order to continue to bring the community the arts events that we host each year we need a strong, active board. Please, please consider becoming a board member! If you can't make a commitment to becoming a board member right now, there are so many other ways to support the arts in our community. Buy local art, create art, attend local art shows, or make a donation and/or volunteer to support the Missoula's Children Theatre, the Children's Art Contest, and ArtWalk. None of these events can occur without the generosity of our community members. We look forward to another great year in the arts with you!

Featured TCAC Board Member – Maureen Lasley

One of the Tehama County Arts Council's long-standing and respected members is Maureen Lasley, who has just completed six years serving as the Secretary of the Tehama County Arts Council Board. "The Arts Council is a natural outlet for someone involved in the education process," says Maureen.

Her career in education began with involvement in the classroom 36 years ago as a teacher's aide. She received her teaching credential seven years later when she began a 21 year career teaching for the Red Bluff Union Elementary School District. In 2000, she returned to Chico State to earn a Library Media Specialist Credential and continued at RBUESD as District Librarian until 2004 when she assumed her current position of Library Media Director for Tehama County Department of Education. She also is the Director of Litfest, an annual festival which offers literary and artistic workshops to students and encourages students to submit writings and illustrations.

"The arts bring subject matter together into a cohesive package where understanding can occur. The results demonstrate the highest form of comprehension."

"Serving the Tehama County Arts Council has been a marvelous experience. The diversity of arts represented by the Board members has enriched my own knowledge and personal development. It has been an honor to serve."

Maureen's term has expired and, according to the TCAC by-laws, no member can serve more than two, three year terms. The TCAC will miss her positive attitude and guidance.

Red Bluff Art Association Busy With Fall Activities

Barbara Luzzadder is one of the featured artists at North Valley Art League in the month of September (2-28), with an Artist's Reception at the Carter House Gallery on Sunday, September 7 from 2-4 p.m. Barbara will be displaying her photography along with NVAL's Edward Beier and Mike Eichwald in an "Images III" exhibition. The NVAL is located at 48 Quartz Hill Drive in Redding. Gallery hours are Tues-Sat 11 a.m.-4 p.m. For information call 243-1023.

Check out current exhibits at The Big Picture, 857 Washington St. and the City Hall's first art exhibit. Both will be up through the end of October.

On September 6th the RBAA will exhibit their work at the Tehama County Museum Jubilee, 275 "C" St. in Tehama from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Many activities, antique appraisals, demonstrations, entertainment and good food are expected. For the day's Schedule of Events go to tcmuse@gmail.com or call 384-2595.

RBAA members are looking forward to the Red Bluff Art Gallery's "JACKPOT" show on September 19, along with a reception and opening. The show will accept only 5 X 7 art that deals with the human figure. Entries should be brought to the Gallery between Sept 1st and 12th. Entry fees will be used to determine the prizes. Gallery hours M-F, 11-5 and by appointment anytime. 529-1332

Heartfelt Designs at 623 Main St. in Red Bluff will host RBAA member Jeff Fennel on the evening of Sept. 20. Jeff will be showing his newest science fiction creations. 527-5180.

Many RBAA artists plan to enter in the Fine Arts Division during the Tehama District Fair from Sept 25-28.

Several RBAA artists will be designing and painting new "Welcome" signs for the Sacramento River Discovery Center.

The RBAA will judge the art submitted for the 8th annual Tehama County Children's Autumn Art Contest, Tehama County Wildlife, on October 2. They will award ribbons for 1st, 2nd and 3rd places in each of four divisions and provide certificates to each participating young artist. The RBAA is co-sponsor of the event along with the TCAC and Sacred Heart School. The exhibit of all entries will be at the fairgrounds on October 11 with an artist's reception at noon.

The Dairyville Festival is October 18th. RBAA artists will fill a 10 X 30 ft. space with their works.

Nov 7-8 is the TCAC's 8th annual ArtWalk. The RBAA venue will be Business Connections, the corner of Main and Pine St. John Gonsalves will provide piano entertainment.

The RBAA celebrates 52 years of bringing art opportunities, education and enrichment to the North Valley. For more information call 527-4810 or write RBAA, Box 944, Red Bluff 96080
