ANNUAL TEHAMA COUNTY STUDENT ART CONTEST
 ENTRIES DISPLAYED THE SECOND SATURDAY OF OCTOBER - FAIRGROUNDS

From the Chair.....

Dear Members:

Brrrrr! It's cold outside! Now is the time to be thankful for all our blessings, delight in the beauty of the Tehama County winter and give ourselves a big pat on the back for a year well done. We know how important our members are and we wish to thank each and every one of you for your support.

One of this year's big events was the 7th Annual Art-Walk! Everyone worked so hard to put this together and as we anxiously checked the sky, the rain and the wind stopped as ArtWalk began. It was magical! We are sending information to participants for suggestions on making the 8th Annual ArtWalk even better. Thanks to everyone.

2010 looks to be another full year of art events and, as always, TCAC will be looking for ways to involve its membership and the community at large.

Live music and singing, dancing, plays, movies, literature, poetry, jewelry design, pottery, sculpture, digital works, photography, paintings, murals, body art and public art - all are waiting to be developed, performed, created, celebrated and shown in the beautiful area in which we live.

The creators of all these arts, these special, gifted people, cannot do it without the councils, associations, support groups, schools, teachers, mentors or organizations like the TCAC.

Please, if you haven't already done so, consider joining the TCAC today...a big member thank-you event is being discussed so don't miss out. Art Lovers Rock - here's to 2010!

Thank you and Happy Holidays,

Jan Petersen

The New BARESTAGE THEATRE!

BARESTAGE SEEKS NEW PLAYS FOR DINNER THEATRE PRODUCTIONS!

Northern California’s BareStage Theatre, a nonprofit, tax-exempt Artists’ Cooperative, is accepting scripts for possible production throughout 2010. There is no set deadline, as the theatre accepts scripts year round, but the sooner plays are submitted the more production slots there will be to fill.

Authors wishing to submit their work should carefully follow the Submission Guidelines posted at www.barestage.com

BareStage Offers Used Theatre Seating

For only $25 a seat, you can own a piece of history by purchasing your very own Art Deco home theatre seating (originally installed in the historic Tower Theatre in Bend Oregon) from Red Bluff’s own nonprofit BareStage Theatre. Only 30 seats left!

Whiskeytown National Recreation Area

“Superintendent’s Invitational-Landscape-Residency”

Call to: Landscape Painters

Whiskeytown National Recreation Area is seeking submissions from California landscape artists who are interested in participating in our Superintendent’s Invitational-Park-Residency.

Up to five professional landscape artists will have the opportunity stay in a cabin at Whiskeytown for up to two weeks to develop paintings inspired by the unique landscape of the park. Whiskeytown National Recreation Area is located 3.5 hours north of San Francisco and two hours north of Sacramento; it covers 42,000 acres of land nestled among the hills of California’s Klamath Mountains. Boasting majestic waterfalls, towering ponderosa pines, mountain wildlife, hiking trails, and a crystal clear lake, Whiskeytown will provide artistic inspiration.

In exchange for their stay, participating artist will be asked to donate to the park an original artwork representative of their time at Whiskeytown.

Landscape artists are encouraged to submit by sending on CD 5-10 images of recent works, their artist’s resume, and date preference for their stay to: Whiskeytown National Recreation Area, Superintendent’s Invitational, P.O. Box 188, Whiskeytown, CA 96095. Submissions must be received no later than December 20th 2009.

Featured TCAC Board Member – Chrissie Hamilton Clapp

Chrissie Hamilton Clapp is an artist and teacher and recently became a board member for the TCAC.

Creativity runs in her family. Her mother was the first woman to play with the Boston Pops Orchestra, and she also was a highly creative weapons developer and inventor.

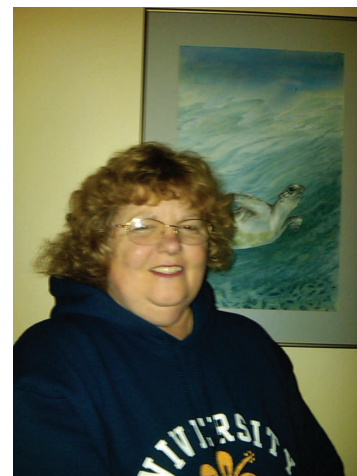

Chrissie began her creative activities as a young girl and taught classical embroidery, including Jacobean style, while living in Santa Barbara in the late 60s. She then designed needlepoint designs for McCall magazine and the Maturango Museum. When she moved to Red Bluff in 1971, she taught weaving, macrame, knitting and crocheting and learned the rudiments of spinning, tatting and rug hooking. For several years she had the honor to work with Judy Chicago on the Birth Project, doing quilting, needlepoint and a large crochet wallhanging. Work from that project is displayed around the world.

Even with all this creativity, she knew she could not draw and do "real" art so she forced herself to take classes and worked very hard to improve her skills. She continues to work hard. For the last several years, Chrissie has focused on watercolor, ceramics, fiberarts and miniatures. Miniatures is probably her favorite activity, as she can do every art medium, just very small. Lately she has been learning to make glass beads and has been doing a lot of work with photography and mixed media.

Chrissie currently teaches at Vista School in Red Bluff. "When I retire I hope to go back to school and of course, take more art classes," she said.
